Continuation of 11. does NOT place the application in condition for allowance because: The rejection of the pending claims, as anticipated by US Patent No. 6,978,369 to Wheeler et al. (hereafter Wheeler) under 35 USC 102, as set forth in the Final Rejection mailed June 14, 2007, is hereby upheld. In the remarks filed October 15, 2007, the Applicant contends that Wheeler fails to disclose a "preapproved offer." To the contrary, as set forth in the Final Rejection, Wheeler discloses the creation of a shell account, wherein an offer is extended to a customer to activate account. Applicant distinguishes the offer of the instant Application from that disclosed by Wheeler by stating, "[Wheeler] does not individually tailor an offer for the existing customer" (Remarks, page 12). The Examiner does not take a stance on this assertion, as the distinction is not recited in the claims. The Examiner maintains that Wheeler discloses a "pre-approved offer" at least when that limitation is given its broadest reasonable interpretation in view of the Specification.
